

Book Week

Written by Roderick Hunt
Illustrated by Alex Brychta

BEFORE READING

Talk together

- Read the title on the cover and ask your child what Kipper is dressed up as.
- Ask: What might happen during a book week at school?
- Look through the book and talk about the pictures.

About the words in this book

- Your child should be able to sound out and blend some words, which may include:
it am big on an up
had book week
- Some words may be more challenging. Encourage or model blending, then read the words below to your child if necessary.

picture author
laugh dressed apple party
lettuce hungry

DURING READING

Enjoy the story together.
If your child needs support to read the words:

- Ask your child to point from left to right under each word whilst reading.
- Model how to sound out and blend new words if necessary.
- If a word is still too tricky, simply say the whole word for your child.
- Use the pictures to talk about the story and learn the meaning of new words.

See the inside back cover for more ideas.

It was book week.

The children made books.

They made a big picture.

They put it on the wall.

An author came.

He made everyone laugh.

The children dressed up.

Kipper was a caterpillar.

He ate an apple.

They had a book party.

Kipper ate a lettuce.

He was the hungry caterpillar.

There was a book sale.

Kipper was hungry.

“I am a hungry Kipper,” he said.

AFTER READING

- Look at the days of the week in the pictures.
Ask: On which day did they dress up?
- At the end of the story, ask: Why was Kipper eating lettuce at the party?
- Ask: Who would you like to dress up as?
